

Paighton Uridil | Text Transcript | CSAHS Award Recognition 2021

Hello Colleen, Rob and Emma. My name is Paighton Uridil. I am a fourth-year student at the University of Guelph, with a major in criminal justice and public policy and a minor in philosophy, and I've also been recently awarded the recipient of the McKendry-Baker Memorial scholarship. I just wanted to thank all of you so much for your generosity, for this scholarship. I'm so honoured.

A little bit about me is, I'm pursuing a career in law or policing. I haven't quite decided yet, but I do plan to graduate this April, so I'm really excited and I do try to pay my own tuition, so it's been really important for me to work while I'm in school. But this scholarship has allowed me to focus a little bit less on working so often and just having some of that financial burden lifted.

So thank you so much. I'm so grateful to be able to have a little bit more time studying, to spend more time on the University of Guelph campus. So, I wanted to thank the three of you so, so much for making me one step closer to pursuing my career in policing or law. Thank you again.

[End of transcript]